21-30 minutes.....	$325.00

Coaching calls also include medical questions/concerns, parent communication including advice or updates, calls for coordination of care to therapists/teachers/agencies). Insurance does not reimburse phone calls, but may telepsychiatry video calls.

Missed appointments

Appointments not cancelled 48 business hours in advance-- will be charged. Late cancellation and no shows affect your therapy, deprives others of your spot and incurs office expense. True emergencies (documentation required), may be the cause for the fee to be adjusted.

Lateness: Your appointment is reserved time. If you arrive late, your session time will not be extended. Insurance only covers face-to-face time.
